Hello there!

Welcome to my fine art Live Wedding Painting practice! I capture your special day's magic in real-time, creating art you'll cherish forever.

Why Choose Live Wedding Painting? I love to paint your wedding's unique story, reflecting its beauty and emotion. This service is not only a captivating form of entertainment for your guests, who can watch the artwork unfold, but it also creates a tangible memory—a personalized heirloom that you can treasure for generations.

My Process: We'll discuss your vision beforehand, ensuring that I understand your style and any special moments you want highlighted. On the day of the wedding, I'll paint live, capturing key moments with brushstrokes that bring your celebration to life. Guests will enjoy the unfolding of the painting as part of the day's festivities, adding a unique and interactive element to your wedding. Your finished artwork will be ready shortly after the event, providing you with a beautiful keepsake that encapsulates your wedding's essence.
